Located at 6670 Post Road in North Kingstown, and having just celebrated their 5-month opening anniversary, Kristen's Kreations is a recent gem that has found itself situated amongst the vibrant businesses of North Kingstown's Post Road corridor. What sets this bakery apart isn't just the expansive offerings of decadent pastries, freshly baked goods, specialty cookies, sandwiches, and lunch fare, but the heartwarming story of how Kristen, one of the former bakers at North Kingstown's landmark bakery, Great Harvest, took the reins to ensure the legacy of delectable treats continue here in North Kingstown.

Having spent three years working at this location's previous bakery, and upon hearing the original owners were planning on moving away, Kristen, along with her husband Dan and a dedicated crew from the old establishment, couldn't bear the thought of the community losing such a cherished spot. Determined to keep the spirit alive, they embarked on an exciting journey to transform the beloved bakery into Kristen's Kreations.

"I always loved baking, and having worked here for 3 years, and having baked since I was 15, I realized, we can do this!"

With such an excellent crew in place it's easy to see where the confidence comes from.

"Carleen, she's my sandwich queen, and Abbey does all my social media and brought her artistic talents to our beautiful chalkboard menu, she's my artistic tech girl."

In addition to the brilliant talents of Carleen and Abby, Kristen also brought her husband Dan and his business know-how and intuition on board. Couple this with the work ethic of Evan, Kristen's son and maintenance whiz who is always ready to pick up the slack as needed and help out, and the results are nothing short of spectacular! This has resulted in more menu offerings and allowed Kristen and her team a week's turn around between when the old location closed and when Kristen's Kreations reemerged.

The transition wasn't just a change in name – it was a commitment to preserve the essence of what made the previous location special, while expanding its offerings, to inject new life and creativity into the menu, and overhaul the location with renewed passion and vigor.

Kristen's passion for baking, combined with Dan's unwavering support and know-how, and the expertise of the existing team, has resulted in a bakery that not only pays homage to its predecessor but also introduces exciting innovations. Some of which include offering catering in the form of sandwich trays, bag lunches, cookie trays, and holiday pies. They've also begun offering customizable gift boxes and baskets, allowing you to personally curate a gift for that special someone or occasion with local Rhode Island sourced artisanal crafts that range from $15 dollars and up.

In addition to a mouthwatering array of pastries, cakes, and cookies, the menu now boasts a variety of savory delights. The introduction of sandwiches and lunch offerings caters to patrons seeking a delicious midday meal. Whether you're in the mood for a sweet treat, or a classic sandwich, Kristen's Kreations has something to satisfy every palate.

Perhaps that's why when Kristen's alarm goes off in the morning, far from dreading the day, she finds herself ready to "get up and go!"

"I like to know my customers personally by name, that's why my name's on the sign."

Having gotten to enjoy the ambiance of Kristen's Kreations, it's clear that this personal approach has allowed this bakery, which is relatively fresh to Post Road, to "keep loyal local customers" while adding new patrons daily.

And the evolution doesn't stop there – in addition to updating the physical space and menu Kristen's Kreations expansion into catering means that now, the community and those working on Post Road, in Quonset, or the greater North Kingstown area can enjoy the same delightful creations, whether on a lunch break, at catered events, parties, or gatherings, or even at the farmer's market!

At Kristen's Kreations this commitment and dedication to quality handcrafted excellence is on display in many ways, and the North Kingstown community is open to it!

"I put something on Facebook, and five minutes later the phone is ringing!"

But perhaps most tellingly, each item on the menu is made with passion and care from scratch. What's more, Kristen's has an offering of specialty breads, including Italian bread, Babkas, and Challah, amongst other special holiday loafs and cookies. A friendly tip for those looking to enjoy these delicious, delectable treats hot out of the oven or fresh as can be specialty breads are made Thursdays and are available later that day or early Friday morning, but be warned, they go quick!
